This report would not be possible without the tireless efforts of the Focal Points of the Issue Management Group on Environmental Sustainability Management.

These Focal Points are responsible for compiling the greenhouse gas inventories for their organizations and have undertaken, with the support of staff from across the UN system, have undertaken to measure, monitor and reduce the footprint of their organizations.

Once again, we would like to commend them for their work - a model for intra as well as inter - agency cooperation in the UN:

Marylene Beau, Ana Priceputu (Basel, Stockholm & Rotterdam Conventions), Alice Abalos (CITES), Melanie Virtue (CMS), Robert Erenstein, Jody Hopponen (CTBTO), Sophie Ravier (DFS/DPA/DPKO), Mohammed Yunus (ECA), Andrea Henrichsen (ECLAC), Peter Van Laere (ESCAP), Halim Nader (ESCWA), Tina Mittendorf, Mitchell Hall, Michael Ginsburg (FAO), Steven S. UNEP would also like to express its appreciation to Theodore Thrasher, Jane Hupe and the secretariat of ICAO for the development and maintenance of a custom-built interface to the ICAO Carbon Emissions Calculator, for use by the UN system.

Considerable time was given by staff from DFS's Information and Communications Technology Division to maintain the UN greenhouse gas calculator and the reporting tool. Particular thanks are due to Syed Ahmed, Ayesha Gessra and Kapil Chourasia.

Acknowledgement is also due to the World Resources Institute, the World Business Council for Sustainable Development, the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (and its Climate Leaders Programme) and the International Energy Agency for the information and data used in the UN greenhouse gas calculator.

Jacob Kurian from the Sustainable United Nations (SUN) facility continued to coordinate and guide the annual greenhouse gas reporting process. Florian Krautzer served as the Helpdesk, providing invaluable advice and support to staff across the UN and led the compilation of the inventory. We also thank WFP intern's, Justin Dittmeier and Lena Gütermann, who assisted in the compilation and presentation of this year's data. Other staff from SUN who supported the work includes Isabella Marras, Shoa Ehsani, Julie MacKenzie, Imogen Martineau, Louise Secular and Thad Mermer.

Thanks is also due to the Environment Management Group - Hossein Fadaei, Martine Titiano, and colleagues in UNEP DTIE - particularly Moira O'Brien and Solange Montillaud-Joyel, and Jim Sniffen in UNEP's New York office.

Finally, we wish to express our deep appreciation to the Government of Norway for the support and funding that enables the UN climate neutral initiative.
